

CASE #021 UPDATE // THE INCOGNITO CHARTER

COMPLEXITY: ■ ■ ■

INSPECTOR PARKER FUGITIVE ON THE RUN

Agent, excellent work tracking our scammer to Flight 845. Bill E. Onair is fleeing to Rio, but there is a catch: everyone on this exclusive charter travels under an alias! We need to uncover his fake name so local authorities can intercept him the moment he steps off the plane.

To protect their privacy, VIP Charter Services operates under a strict golden rule: No passenger can share the same row or column with another.

Fortunately, he has a weak spot. Agency intel confirms Onair always books the Emergency Exit (Row 4) for a quick getaway. Whoever is sitting in Row 4 is our target!

Review the passenger requests, map the seating grid, and uncover the scammer's alias. The clock is ticking!

THE VIP REQUESTS

All requests were confirmed by the flight crew.

1

LEBRONZE GAMES

Since I'm quite tall, an aisle seat is a must for me to stretch my legs. Could you seat me as close to the minibar as you can?

2

BILLIE EYELASH

Could you please make sure there's a neck pillow on my seat? I really need to get some rest on this flight. Thank you!

3

SAYLOR SHIFT

My lucky number is 13, but since there is no row 13, I'd be happy with row 1, 3, or 4. I would also love a window seat on the right side to watch the sunrise, please.

4

MR FEAST

I would love a window seat, please. Oh, and could you place me in the row right after my good friend LeBronze?

5

THURSDAY DARK

I prefer to stay out of the sun, so an aisle seat would be best for me. Also, please make sure my bag is waiting for me on my seat.

6

THE STONE

I would really appreciate it if you could leave my favorite detective book on my seat so I can read it during the flight.
